(FINALLY!) SPAR LAUNCHING

AFTER BEING POSTPONED FROM LAST QUARTER, FINALLY RALS HAS OFFICIALLY OPENED SPAR, 3 OUTLETS AT ONCE LOCATED IN BOGOR, CIBITUNG, AND CIBINONG (WEST JAVA). THIS YEAR, THE COMPANY PLANS TO OPEN ANOTHER 12 SPAR STORES, FOCUSED IN GREATER JAKARTA AREA AND EAST JAVA, BY CONVERTING ITS EXISTING ROBINSON SUPERMARKET STORES.

An Attempt to Revamp the Supermarket

During this week's analyst meeting, we were given a virtual tour and we see a more exciting concept and better ambiance that SPAR delivers, a fresh modern market with convenience, such as fresh fruit, vegetables, and meat; in-store bakery; health and beauty zone; play area for children; coffee shop and mini-restaurant inside the store that could accommodate up to 40 pax. The company also offers loyalty card to attract customers to accumulate points in exchange for discounts. RALS is confident that the cooperation with SPAR will be fruitful given the strong reputation of SPAR with worldwide operations, and it aims an aggressive target of +2.5% gross margin expansion and +30% annual growth from the business. One strategy to achieve the gross margin expansion and more foot traffic, the company will increase the portion of fresh product and food sales from 11% to 25% and 37% to 40% of each store, respectively. Within the next 3 years the company plans to open 30-50 new SPAR outlets, mostly by renovating its existing Robinson stores. With this new concept, the company will enter the low-middle consumer segment, while its department store business still targeting the low segment. In our view, in the first 3 years it will need to commit with higher opex, especially in adapting to new brand, image, system, promotions, as well as human resources trainings. We think the company will be able to turnaround its supermarket business, however, we do not expect a "booming" effect on the brand since it will compete with well-known competitors such as Hero, Carrefour, Hypermart, Giant, Lotte Mart, etc.

One Step at a Time

This year, instead of setting an aggressive expansion for its Ramayana department store, the company will focus more on the development of SPAR, in which the company will convert another 12 Robinson outlets into SPAR that require around Rp3 million/sqm. Furthermore, the company said that it will open only a couple of new store this year in total of 50k sqm (gross) in Java Area for both department store and supermarket and prepare capex attaining to Rp450 billion, all funded by internal cash.

Result Update

While the FY14 audited result will be published by the end of this month, the company reported that the estimated FY14 sales was amounted to Rp7,941 billion (99.1% of our estimates) along with total gross space of 988.787 sqm, as 2 of its store in Lamongan (-3.432 sqm) and Pamulang (-1.553 sqm) have been closed. As of January 2015, the company reported a total sales of Rp518.5 billion (6.0% our FY15 estimates), with national SSSG of -5.5% YoY.

Upgrade to BUY (from NEUTRAL) recommendation – Fair Value Rp 950 per share

We maintain our target price of Rp950/ share, BUY recommendation for the stock. At yesterday's closing price, RALS was trading at 10.3x PER 2015F and 4.6x EV/EBITDA 2015F.
